4. Reading. Match the texts with the titles. There is one extra title.

- | | |
|----------------------------------|------------------------|
| A. Ordering in | E. Lucky escape |
| B. Good way to meet | F. Long journey |
| C. Fast food is unhealthy | |
| D. A new way to buy | |

- When you are tired and don't want to cook, just pick up the phone. Restaurants are expensive and take some time and effort to reach if you don't live in the centre of town. Ordering food for home delivery is cheap and these days there is a huge choice. Indian and Chinese are the most popular but I prefer to get in a pizza.
- A school group on a skiing holiday to Italy narrowly avoided disaster when their coach left the road and fell eighty meters into a valley. Trees slowed down the falling coach and because of the fresh new snow the vehicle landed quite softly. Amazingly no one was injured.
- A teenager from London is making news around the world. On his recent holiday in Australia he set off without his mobile phone. Experts are amazed that he is still alive after walking for fourteen days, surviving extreme temperatures and living off the land. However, a lot of Australians are unhappy with him. The rescue cost is estimated at more than 100,000 dollars.
- You can buy almost anything, new or second hand, on the internet. On one site you can offer the price you want to pay for something. Whoever offers the highest price can buy that item. Recently I made the highest offer for a nearly new pair of skis. However, I only paid half of what they would have cost new in a shop.
- Making new friends on the internet makes so much sense. You can see someone's photo and read if they share your interests and opinions. The important thing is you can spend time getting to know people who are attractive to you and looking for the same things in life that you are. Still, for personal safety, most sites recommend that in person you meet initially in a public place like a cafe or a gallery.

___/20 (5*4)

5. Writing. You have received a letter from your English-speaking pen friend, Ann.

You have received a letter from your English-speaking pen friend, Lily.

... You've probably seen the photos which I took on my holiday. During the rainy days we are having now they bring back good memories! The summer, the countryside, the mountains, the time when I could ride my bicycle all day long! ...

...Where did you spend your last summer holidays? What did you do during your holidays? What holidays do you like more (summer or winter holidays) and why?...

Write her a letter and answer her 3 questions.

Write 100–120 words. Remember the rules of letter writing.

This description gives us information about such film genre as....

A. THRILLER

B. TEEN FILM

C. ADVENTURE FILM

D. ROMANTIC DRAMA

E. HORROR FILM

F. COMEDY

G. WESTERN

1. Films of this genre are designed to evoke fright, fear, terror, or horror from viewers. In these films plots, evil forces, events intrude into the everyday world. This film characters include vampires, zombies, monsters, serial killers, and a range of other fear-inspiring characters.

2. This film genre has been a popular one in the history of cinema. These films are usually set in the past or sometimes in a fantasy world, and often involve sword fighting or swashbuckling. There is an element of romanticism attached to the films of this genre. Some popular films concepts include an outlaw figure fighting for justice or battling a tyrant, pirates and a search for a lost city or for hidden treasure.

3. Films of this genre often take place in exotic settings such as foreign cities, deserts, polar regions, or high seas. The heroes in most films are frequently "hard men" accustomed to danger: spies, soldiers, seamen, or pilots. However, they may also be ordinary citizens drawn into danger by accident.

4. This is a film that depends mostly on in-depth character development, interaction, and highly emotional themes. In a good film of this genre, the audience is able to experience what other characters are feeling and identify with someone. Such movies could also be therapeutic by showing how characters cope with their problems.

5. The basic plot of this genre is that two people meet, argue with each other, but despite an attraction obvious to the audience do not become romantically involved because of some internal factor or an external barrier. At some point, after various comic scenes, they are parted for some reason. One partner or the other then realizes that they are perfect for each other, and they meet again, they declare undying love for each other, and disappear off into the sunset together.

6. This is a film genre in which the plot is based upon the special interests of young people, such as coming of age, first love, conflict with parents, teen angst and alienation. Films in this genre are often set in high schools, or contain characters that are of high school age. The genre is popular with young people and young adults, who can better relate to the subject matter than mature audience.

Задание 2

Прочитайте тексты. Установите, в каких текстах А - F можно найти ответы на вопросы 1 – 5. Ответ на каждый вопрос можно найти только в одном тексте. Один из приведенных текстов лишний. Запишите свои ответы в таблицу.

In what text can you find information about:

- 1) one of the political parties;
- 2) the language spoken in India;
- 3) medical problems in some African countries;
- 4) a nice trip;
- 5) mobile revolution.

A. Many people in my city speak Hindlish – a mixture of English and Hindi. It’s considered cool and trendy. It’s used in newspapers and advertising, at universities and, of course, in movies. The Hindlish titles of many Hollywood films express a concept more compactly than either language does separately.

B. Nine kilometers upriver, you can walk off the boat at Heritage Landing. A boardwalk, placed there to minimize the environmental impact from hikers, takes you on a 700-metre loop through primeval rain forest. Look up, and you’ll see huge pines. Look along the track, and you’ll see tree ferns and climbing heath.

C. In less than 10 years Finland has moved at a meteoric pace from a country dependent on the export of paper and pulp for most of its gross domestic product to one that is leading the world in m-commerce – mobile internet and phone technologies.

D. Today Sinn Fein is the success story of Irish politics. With a young and active membership, it is now the strongest nationalist party in Northern Ireland, and it is the fastest growing political movement across the island. Sinn Fein has five Westminster MPs and five members of the Irish parliament in Dublin.

E. In the UK, the word “ecotourism” is not used a lot any more. It lost its meaning because anybody who was operating any type of holiday that involved nature was describing himself as an ecotourism operator. The word “responsible” can apply to tourists who are responding in a responsible way and to the type of tourism that is being developed.

F. Polio hasn’t been a problem in the Western world for 30 years. But in places like Nigeria, hundreds of people still get the disease every year. It’s because not all of them accept the vaccine. In 2003, villagers in northern Nigeria told each other that the polio vaccine could cause Aids, and many parents hid their children from the doctors.

Bill’s father Bill Gates Jr. worked for a Seattle law firm and Bill’s mother Mary, taught school until they started their family. As a child Bill enjoyed rocking back and forth, today he still has a habit of rocking when he is thinking about something. Bill was very bored at school and his parents knew it so they were always trying to feed him more information to keep him busy. Bill’s parents finally decided to put him in a private school where he would be challenged more. The Lakeside private school had just bought a new computer when Bill arrived and he was immediately hooked. Within a week he had surpassed the knowledge of the computer teacher at Lakeside. Learning the BASIC programming language was a breeze for Bill and he was soon writing his own programs. Bill’s love for computers and math led him to a new place around his neighborhood that was renting computer time. He got an arrangement with the owners that he would get free computer time if he found things that would make the computer crash. During this time Bill met Paul Allen, his business partner for the rest of his life. Together they started a small company called Traf-O-Data; they sold a small computer outfitted with their program that could count traffic for the city. This company wasn't a big success. Upon graduating from Lakeside Bill enrolled in Harvard University in 1973, one of the best universities in the country. Bill was also bored here so he spent most of his time programming, playing poker and seeing how little work he could do and still get A's. He told his teachers that he would be a millionaire by the time he was 30, this was one of the few times he underestimated himself, Bill was a billionaire when he was 31. The intense lifestyle Bill lived during his first year in Harvard made him ill. Bill soon left Harvard for business opportunities in programming which turned him into a multi-billionaire.
